Question No. 1
Proposed Amendment to the Constitution.
 Shall an amendment to the Constitution providing for biennial sessions of the General Court and for a biennial budget which is further described as follows:- This amendment annuls all existing provisions of the Constitution and its prior amendments which require annual sessions of the General Court, commonly known as the Legislature, and provides for biennial sessions in their place. It also provides that the budget of all proposed expenditures of the Commonwealth shall be so prepared as to cover two fiscal years instead of only one as at present required,- which proposed amendment was approved by the General Court and in a joint session of the two branches held May 27, 1936, received 141 votes in the affirmative and 117 in the negative, and in a joint session of the two branches at the State Election held herein, November 8, 1938.

Board of Election Commissioners of Somerville.

The image shows a blank ledger page with a grid of 10 columns and 25 rows. The columns are of varying widths: the first column is the narrowest, followed by a wider column, then a column that is wider than the first but narrower than the second, and the remaining seven columns are of similar width, with the last column being the widest. The page is otherwise empty of any text or markings.
